16. Banking review (as per auditor's report this should be carried out every 3 years). See Clerk's Report for research.

17. Meetings format. To decide whether to hold online meetings in future.
It is still GAPTC's advice that meetings take place online if possible. It also appears that the Covid-19 pandemic will be affecting meetings until well into 2021. Councillors to decide whether to meet by Zoom in future and whether to buy a Zoom license. Free Zoom has a max duration of 40 mins per meeting. The current price of a Zoom license is £119.90 p.a. (unlimited duration, max 100 attendees, recording).

18. Next meeting: Councillors to decide on the date of the next meeting. This would normally be 2nd December, but current conditions may mean that the date may have to be changed.

All meetings are subject to Government advice. A Risk Assessment has been carried out for the use of the Village Hall and is available on the Temple Guiting Parish Council website.
